Eighth Sunday of the Year

March 2nd 2025

My dear parishioners,

This weekend we welcome our friends from the charity Mary's Meals. The speakers will share some information with us about the good work of the charity and about Namichenja Primary School in Kenya, which we will sponsor for one year; there will be a second collection at each Mass. The Parish Council warmly invites you to enjoy some tea/coffee, toast and home-baking in the parish hall after the two Sunday morning Masses; it's a moment to thank you for your support. Please come around to the hall if you have time. Some Fairtrade goods, including the popular Fairtrade Easter Egg will be available to purchase.

Bishop Toal has sent a letter to all the parishes of the Diocese asking that we be represented at a Wellspring Parish Renewal Meeting on Monday 10th March at St. Bernadette's Church, Motherwell from 7-9pm. The bishop suggests that three or four people from each parish take part in the discussions around parish renewal, with a strong emphasis on spiritual growth; it will be a time to pray together and learn from each other as we all strive for spiritual renewal. In addition to hearing the experience of three parishes who have initiated their renewal programmes, there will be opportunity to pray and reflect together, as well as discussion and listening.
