Third Sunday of Easter

May 1st 2022

My dear parishioners,

I hope this finds you well. Already we have reached the third Sunday of the beautiful Easter season, this time of Alleluia for the gift of the Risen Christ. In the liturgy we are listening to some of the resurrection texts and I thought you might like to read the following paragraph written by Pope St. John Paul II reflecting on this Sunday's gospel:

*“It is the Lord!” (Jn 21:7). This exclamation of the Apostle John emphasises the intense emotion experienced by the disciples on recognizing the risen Jesus, who appeared to them for the third time on the shore of the Sea of Tiberius. After a long night of loneliness and toil, the dawn arrives and his appearance radically changes everything: the darkness is overcome by light, the fruitless work becomes an easy and abundant catch of fish, the feeling of tiredness and loneliness is transformed into joy and peace. Since then, these same sentiments enliven the church. If at a superficial level it sometimes seems that the darkness of evil and the toil of everyday life have the upper hand, the Church knows with certainty that the light of Easter now shines eternally on those who follow Christ. The great message of the Resurrection fills the hearts of the faithful with inner joy and renewed hope.
(St. John Paul II)*

It is worth remembering that Pope St. John Paul II studied for the priesthood in secret in Poland during the Second World War, so as a young man he experienced the darkness of evil that he mentions in his text. The Church's certainty that the light of Easter now shines eternally must have given him and countless others hope that this evil would also be overcome. May this same hope strengthen the people of Ukraine and people of other places too that are experiencing the terrible chaos that great evil brings into our world. In such moments we join with the faith community who have gone before us and from the depth of our being we too say, “It is the Lord, he is risen, Alleluia, Alleluia!”

And may this certain faith strengthen all of us at St. Mary's and St. Paul's,
Fr.O'Brien
