The Fourth Sunday of the Year

January 30th 2022

My dear parishioners,

I hope this finds you well. In the Gospel for this fourth Sunday of the liturgical year Jesus' preaching ends in hostility and a threat of violence, hints perhaps of the journey ahead of him. Like the prophet Jeremiah he must 'brace himself' and face rejection and opposition steadfastly. The Good News must be preached, however unwelcome. 'Love does not come to an end', even when that love is rejected, for such is the love of God which 'endures whatever comes.' Let us pray together to have this love that does not come to an end.

I offer here the schedule for the liturgy:
